Registrants are accordingly advised to consult with their payment method provider regarding fees that may apply. These fees may appear on your credit card, bank or other payment statement, but are not charged by IAPP and will not appear on the IAPP invoice.

IAPP membership
The IAPP's extensive member benefits include discounted pricing on event registration. To become a member or to renew your membership, please contact us before registering for the event.

In addition to discounted conference rates, an IAPP membership includes the annual certification maintenance fee, free access to KnowledgeNet chapter meetings, discounts on training, books and more.

Registration
A valid IAPP account is required to register for this event. If you do not have an account, create one before registering.

Cancellations: Registration fees are not refundable
Registrants can receive a full account credit by contacting us in writing prior to the end of the conference. Account credits can be used toward other IAPP conferences and products. Account credits are valid for two years.

For trainings and workshops associated with a conference, this same cancellation policy applies with notice of cancellation required prior to the end of the training or workshop.

No credits will be issued to attendees who do not check-in onsite and/or do not contact IAPP as stated above, and to the extent they have not yet paid the applicable registration fees, they will remain liable for payment in full.
