My children of the Evil Axis, the time has come!

PRUDENCE THE PRIVACY PRO

Sigh... We will now begin to target specific companies and exploit their ignorance of handling sensitive data!

The time has come for what, my queen?

And why is that?

Uh... B—because the IAPP’s FTC Casebook was recently launched.

What?

It’s been much harder for me to do my job lately.

The FTC Casebook?

It’s true, great phisher queen, it was Prudence.

You should check it out.

Check it out? Check it out?

You want me to “check it out”?

That Prudence has made it easy for companies to figure out what not to do.

That is crystal clear. Something must be done now show me the book.

Full-text searchable, taggable, indexed and annotated.

It’s easily found on the IAPP Resource Center homepage and is free to members.
