As the 2022 U.S. state legislative sessions come to a close, it is clear protecting consumer privacy is a growing priority.

SINCE 2018...

- 39 states considered comprehensive consumer privacy laws.
- 5 states enacted comprehensive consumer privacy laws.
- 78% of US states considered consumer privacy laws.

US STATE PRIVACY LEGISLATION IN 2022

Considered bills
- 2022: 60 bills considered
- 2021: 29 bills considered
- 106% increase from 2021 to 2022

First time considering bills
- GEORGIA, INDIANA, MAINE, MICHIGAN, AND VERMONT

Passed law
- 2 states passed new comprehensive consumer privacy laws.
- UTAH AND CONNECTICUT

For more information on U.S. State privacy legislation, visit IAPP’s Resource Center.